

The Nurture Group Network
“The Theory and Practice of Nurture Groups”
A 3 day Accredited Course

Part One: 24th/25th April 2012 Part Two: 12th June 2012

Audience

Any professional who wishes to develop their understanding of Nurture Groups. This is of particular importance to members of staff who are setting up or running a Nurture Group. It is also useful for educators who are working with, or who come into contact with children with behavioural, emotional and social developmental needs, as well as promoting a whole school nurturing ethos.

Learners can complete an assignment for submission to the NGN for our certificate.

Cost

£500 per person for 3 days, which includes all course materials, a copy of the Boxall Profile Handbook and support in completing an assignment. Upon successful submission of the assignment you will receive an accreditation certificate.

Dates

Part One: 24th and 25th April 2012

Part Two: 12th June 2012

Venue

NCB
8 Wakley Street
London
EC1V 7QE

Tutor

Helen Stollery: NGN National Training Officer
If you are interested in attending this course please contact:
judith@nurturegroups.org Tel: 01942 303 201